

REQUEST FOR SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS APPEAL FORM

Federal and State regulations mandate that students must meet the minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements to be eligible to receive financial aid. The Satisfactory Academic Progress policy can be found on the Columbus State University website at: http://finaid.columbusstate.edu/finaid_policies.php “What is Satisfactory Academic Progress?”

Students wishing to appeal their ineligibility for financial aid must complete the Request for Financial Aid Appeal Form, attach required documents, and return it to the Columbus State University Office of Financial Aid for review by the financial aid appeals committee. Please do not submit the appeal to the Office of Financial Aid for review until all four sections of the form are completed, including your signature and all required documents are attached. Incomplete appeals will not be reviewed. You will be notified of the appeal decision by e-mail and mail. Also, you can review your status through your myCSU account.
